A similar committee having first examined, counted, folded and scaled up in cylindrical tubes or boxes precisely alike, as many MAJOR, Public Printer of the State of Kentucky. slips of paper, on which are printed 1,156 gifts, denominating from $100 to $100,000, will then place these 1,156 sealed boxes containing the gifts in the smaller wheel. Both wheels will then be turned until their contents are thoroughly-mixed. A blind boy will then draw from the larger wheel one of the tags, holding it up in full view of the audience. Its number will then be called loud enough for all to hear by the crier appointed for this purpose. The tag will then be passed to a committee of three dis-Unpuished citizens, who will say whether the number has been rightly called, and then passed to a registrar, who will file it upon a wire prepared for that purpose. The number of the tag thus drawn, cried, proven and filed, will be recorded by five bank clerks, in separate books prepared for that purpose. A blind girl will then draw from the smaller wheel one of the sealed boxes, which will be opened and the gift taken out, unfolded and held up to the view of the audience. The amount of the gift will then be cried, recorded by the five clerks, and the paper filed by the registrar with its tag upon the wire. The gift thus drawn will belong to the ticket bearing the same number as the tag drawn immediately before it. Thus this process will continue until 1,156 are drawn from the large wheel and all the boxes from the small wheel. After the drawing is over, the large wheel containing the tags will be placed in the hands of a committee chosen by the audience, who ean examine for themselves and see whether all the tickets With such precaution, all must see that the utmost fairness is intended, and that fraud, favoritism or a knowledge beforehand of what gift any ticket may draw is absolutely entire Board of Councilmen of Frankfort, together with the long list of distinguished State officials-all gentlemen of unsullied honor and integrity-associated with them in the management and distribution afford a perfect guarantee that the enterprise, from first to last, will be conducted with the strictest impartiality, fairness and justice to alt. As It is the object of this enterprise to raise money for educational endowment purposes, so it will be seen that the gifts to be distributed are not mere property in houses and lands, but the actual cash itself, mounting to the stupendous sam of $600,000. Among the fortunes to be distributed are the following:-One grand eift of $100.000; another of $50,000; another of $25,000; another of $20,000; another of $10,000; another of $5,000 and so on down through a resplendent list of over 10,000 gilts. Such a constellation of opportunities was never before offered for securing a fortune at an outlay of only $12

EXPLANATION OF APPROXIMATE GIFTS.

All the gifts below $100 in value are approximations, and will be determined and paid as follows :- The numbers of all the tickets sold being considered in a circle, numerically formed, and having the highest number, 100,000, and the lowest, 1, brought together, then whatever number in this circle may be by lot determined to be entitled to the capital gift of $100,000 will be taken as a centre, on each side of which the next 5,000 numbers in regular numerical order will be counted for the $12 gifts, thus making on the two sides of the capital gift 10,000 nearest numbers, each of which will be entitled to $12, provided, however, that in making the count of 10,000 numbers nearest to that of the capital gift, all intervening numbers which draw higher gifts will be excepted, so as to avoid duplicating gifts, it being the intention not to pay a $12 gift to any ticket en-

The chances for those who buy tickets are so great to make money, while they take so little risk, it is believed that every ticket will be sold before the day fixed for the drawing; but whether all are sold or not, the drawing will nevertheless take place. Should any of the tickets remain all the offered gifts, 1,155 in number, will be drawn, but diminished in value in proportion to the amount of unsold are sold, the other fourth will be destroyed, and the gifts reduced, not in number, but in value, one-fourth. The cap-Ital gift in that event would be $75,000 instead of $100,000.

and all the other gifts in the same proportion. All will see that this would be perfectly fair, for the chances of drawing

The payment of gifts will begin the fourth day after the drawing, and continue six months thereafter, and no longer. Tickets entitled to gifts must be presented, or sent to the office of the Kentucky Cash Distribution Company, Frankfort, Ky., where they will be taken up and paid by cash checks on the Farmers' Bank of Frankfort, or by sight draft on New York, at the option of the holder. No gift will be paid without the delivery of the ticket entitled to it and all gifts not called for within six months after the drawing will be turned over to the company for the benefit of the public schools of Frankfort

The Kentucky Cash Distribution Company have secured the services of Hon. Thomas P. Porter, late Governor of the grand old Commonwealth o: Kentucky, to act as their Agent and General Manager in the financial affairs of this Grand Gift Enterprise. Governor Porter is well known to almost every one in the State of Kentucky and to very many of the citizens of other States in the Union and pur chasers of tickets can rest well assured that their interests will be thoroughly protected under his able management.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

As an assurance to the ticket holders that all gifts will be paid we deem it proper to state that this enterprise possesses one feature which better protects them than any other of a similar character. The City Council of Frankfort, anxious to protect all who invested their means in any scheme to be drawn under the franchise granted them by the Legislature of Kentucky, made it a condition of its contract that a bond in a heavy penalty, with good security, unsold on the day of the drawing, they will be destroyed; should be executed to the Commonwealth of Kentucky, conditioned that all gifts drawn in any distribution under the franchise should be paid to the owner of such prize tickets. For example :- If only three-fourths of the tickets tietes. IN COMPLIANCE WITH THIS CONDITION A BOND WAS EXECUTED WITH SECURITY, AP-PROVED BY THE MAYOR AND COUNCIL OF FRANK-FORT AND BY THE PRESIDING JUDGE OF THE FRANKLIN COUNTY COURT. THIS BOND IS NOW ON RECORD IN THE OFFICE OF THE CLERK OF SAID COUNTY COURT AND OF THE CITY COUNCIL. SUBJECT TO THE INSPECTION OF ANY ONE. So is will be seen that if the Cash Distribution Company should moneys arising from the sale of tickets will be placed there. from any cause fail to pay any gifts that may be drawn the person entitled to such prize has ample security for its pay-

CARD FROM EX-GOVERNOR THOMAS P. PORTER. AT THE EARNEST SOLICITATION OF THE DI RECTORS OF THE KENTUCKY CASH DISTRIBUTION COMPANY, I HAVE CONSENTED TO ACT AS AGENT AND GENERAL MANAGER OF THIS GREAT UNDER-TAKING, AND MY TIME AND CARE WILL BE DE-VOTED FROM THE SALE OF THE FIRST TICKET TO THE PAYMENT OF THE LAST GIFT. IT WILL BE MY DUTY TO SEE THAT THE MONEY ARISING FROM THE SALE OF TICKETS IS DEPOSITED IN THE FARMERS' BANK OF KEN-TUUKY, TO REMAIN FOR THE PAYMENT OF OFFERED GIPTS; TO SEE THAT THE DRAWING IS PAIRLY CONDUCTED, AND THAT THOSE WILG DRAW GIFTS ARE PROMPTLY PAID ON PRESENTA-TION OF THEIR TICKETS, AND THIS DUTY I WILL PERFORM TO THE BEST OF MY ABILITY. KNOWING THE OBJECT TO BE A GOOD ONE, AND THE MEANS LAWFUL, I SHALL DO ALL I CAN TO MAKE IT THE SUCCESS WHICH IT SO WELL DESERVES

THOMAS P. PORTER.

Governor Porter-I do not think a fortune acquired by lottery is the result of mere chance any more than if it were the bequest of a relative or a successful stroke of business. It accords neither with my ideas of Christianity nor common sense to suppose that this enterprise is the only thing idereation not subject to the will of the Creator. There are no "tensons" against lotteries if honestly conincted. There is some prejudice, I know, which is fast disappearing. Although this is a strictly legal affair, yet legis lative interference with anything of the kind is arbitrary.

except so far as it protects the public. Reporter-Then you are satisfied, Governor, that the programme set forth in this circular by the company will be carried out to the letter ?

Governor Porter-I am ; and when I have reason to doubt it I shall immediately warn the public by the withdrawal of my name. I consider every ticket-holder as a client of mine, whose interest it is my duty to protect, at any cost. I have no interest with the company, but act simply as the attorney of their patrons.

Reporter-That throws quite a new light upon the matter.

THE KENTUCKY CASH DISTRIBUTION COMPANY as organized in the year 1876, having previously obtained consented to act as General Manager and has given his ersonal and individual attention to its affairs. The Board of Supervisors was chosen from the foremost men of the State of Kentucky-HON, ALVIN DUVALL, LATE CHIEF JUSTICE OF THE SUPREMB COURT, and a long list of distinguished officials acting in that capacity, besides the Mayor and entire Board of Councilmen of the city of Frankfort. The drawing was originally set for August 31, but in consequence of the stagustion of business, the unprecedented heat of summer and the fact that many frauds had been practised upon the publie under the garb of "legalized lottery," the sales at that time did not justify a full drawing, and house the manage ment determined, though reluctuantly, to postpone the day of drawing until November 30th, inst. Since the postponement the public have seemed to appreciate the causes leading thereto and have invested liberally, and, considering the number of agencies that have been established in the United States and Canada (all of which report encouragingly), a full drawing is confidently predicted. THE UNDERSIGNED WISH TO REFER TO THE ESPECIAL CARE AND STRAIGHTFORWARD-NESS WITH WHICH THIS ENTERPRISE HAS BEEN CONDUCTED FROM ITS INCEPTION. The funds arising from previous sales of tickets have been collected and placed to the credit of ex-tioverpor Thomas P. Porter, General Manager, and subject to his check alone, which, he assures the public, will only be given in payment of prof fored gifts. In addition to this and in compliance with the charter granted the company a BOND, WITH HEAVY PENALTY AND SECURITY, approved by the Mayor and Conneil of the city of Frankfort and by the presiding Judge of the Franklin County Court, has been executed-hence ticket holders are doubly seenred in the payment of their gifts, for by this bond alone, which is now on
